graduation, shall be granted a graduation certificate of SYSU. Those who meet the requirements for degree awarding should be awarded the bachelor's degree of SYSU and granted the degree certificate.

VII. Scholarship

1. Granting Amount

Scholarship recipients are exempted from paying tuition fees, and the school will provide a subsidy of RMB 30,000 per student per academic year for living expenses, which will be paid to the student's personal bank account on a monthly basis. The above scholarships and financial support are not available for students who are studying Chinese on their own.

2. Granting Period

(1) In principle, the scholarship will cover the normal study period of the undergraduate program.

(2) Scholarship recipients are required to participate in the annual review. After passing the review, they will be able to continue to enjoy the scholarship for the next academic year; otherwise, the scholarship will be suspended or canceled.

(3) SYSU encourages excellent students to further their studies. Undergraduate students who apply for a master's degree at SYSU will be eligible for various scholarships.

VIII. Selection Procedures

1. Qualification Review

SYSU will review the applicant' foreign status, highest academic qualifications, recommendations, academic performance, Chinese language proficiency and other supporting documents to determine the assessment list.

2. Interview

SYSU will issue a notice of assessment after the application deadline, and those who have passed the qualification examination must attend an interview as required in the notice. Please refer to the email notification for the interview arrangement.

3. Admission

(1) Applicants will be admitted on the basis of their qualification review and interview results.

(2) Pre-admission results will be published on our application website. The electronic Admission Letter and the Foreign Student Visa Application Form will be sent via email. Depending on the actual situation, paper copies of the Acceptance Letter and Visa Application Form for Foreign Students are expected to be sent out in August to the address the applicants have filled out in the online application system. Please make sure the address is valid.

(3) Admitted applicants should apply for X1 visa at the Chinese embassy or consulate with the Admission Letter and the Foreign Student Visa Application Form. The X1 visa holders must go through residential formalities in the local public security departments within thirty days of entry into China. Otherwise, the admitted applicants will face expulsion. SYSU will not accept the registration of students without a valid student visa, and international students whose visas or residence permits have expired are not allowed to stay or conduct activities on campus.

(4) SYSU will recommend other types of scholarships for outstanding new students. Please await further notice from the university regarding the details of the application.

IX. Supervision

1. Admitted students must complete registration procedures according to the registration date and location required in the Admission Letter. They are not allowed to register in advance. Those who have failed to register within the time limit without approval will be regarded as having given up their admission qualifications. Scholarship recipients will be disqualified.

2. Applicants should be responsible for the materials submitted. In accordance with relevant regulations of China and SYSU, applicants who have fabricated materials to obtain admissions will have their admission qualifications and student status canceled by SYSU. After verification, relevant administrative departments will be informed of the facts of fabrication of the applicants.

3. In accordance with relevant regulations and requirements of the Ministry of Education, SYSU will conduct a physical examination and review of admission eligibility for all admitted applicants after enrollment. Applicants who have not met the admission requirements or provided fabricated materials will be disqualified from admissions or student status. Scholarship recipients will be disqualified.

4. SYSU Office of International Students' Affairs, Admissions Office of Education administration, performs the supervisory duties of the admissions. The Discipline Inspection and Supervision Department performs the specific supervisory duties.

X. Supplementary Provisions

1. This guide is applicable to the enrollment work for SYSU 2022 "Belt and Road" Scholarship Program for International Students (Bachelor's Degree), and shall be implemented as of the date of publication.

2. This guide will be explained by SYSU Office of International Students' Affairs, Admissions Office of Education administration, authorized by SYSU Undergraduate Admission Leading Group.

In accordance with the enrollment information of 2022 “China Studies Program” (CSP) Ph.D. Fellowships published by the Center for Language Education and Cooperation of the Ministry of Education and the actual conditions of SYSU, this guide is formulated as follows.

I. Introduction

Set up by the Center for Language Education and Cooperation of the Ministry of Education, the CSP unites top universities and outstanding scholars in China to provide research opportunities and support for overseas young scholars in the field of China studies during their doctoral study. The program includes Ph.D. in China Fellowship and Joint Research Ph.D. Fellowship. Ph.D. in China Fellowship supports outstanding foreign master's degree holders in pursuing doctoral degrees at Chinese universities. With relevance to the curriculum requirements of related majors at our university, such fellowship requires four years of full-time study and Chinese as the medium of instruction. Joint Research Ph.D. Fellowship provides funds to outstanding foreign doctoral students (candidates) registered at foreign universities to come to China for study, joint research, or doctoral dissertation writing. The Fellowship lasts from one semester to two years.

II. Eligibility

Young sinologists who aspire to engage in China-related research in humanities and social sciences, who have solid academic foundations, and a targeted research topic or goal are welcomed to apply. They should also be able to conduct research in Chinese, have a global vision for academic pursuit, thoroughly understand international academic norms, and participate in international academic exchange and research.

1. Applicants should be non-Chinese citizens and in good health.
2. Language proficiency.

(1) Applicants for the Ph.D. Fellowship program in China should have an HSK (Level V) certificate with 180 points or above. Priority is given to those with a higher level of proficiency in Chinese under the same conditions.

(2) Applicants for the Joint Research Ph.D. Fellowship program should have an HSK (Level III) certificate with 180 points or above. Priority is given to those with a higher level of proficiency in Chinese under same conditions.

(3) Applicants for the Ph.D. Fellowship program in China should have obtained a master's degree, or be fresh graduates.

(4) Applicants for the Joint Research Ph.D. Fellowship program should be registered doctoral students at foreign universities.

(5) Applicants who have been awarded the Chinese Government Scholarship are not allowed to apply for this program.

III. Scholarship Coverage

The recipients for the CSP are provided financial support including tuition fees, living and research stipends, and international travel expenses. They will also receive professional guidance from mentors from Chinese and foreign universities and have in-depth interaction with Chinese and foreign scholars through participating in tailored forums, seminars, workshops and other academic activities offered by the Center for Language Education and Cooperation; After their graduation, they will be given priority in gaining support from other projects within the CSP. For more details for scholarships, please refer to the information released by the Center for Language Education and Cooperation:

VI. Application Deadline

February 28th, 2022

VII. Selection Procedure

1. Qualification Review

SYSU will review the applicants' foreign status, highest degree, academic performance, language proficiency, research proposal and recommendation letters to determine the assessment list.

2. Assessment

The assessment will be organized by admission teams and will generally be conducted in one of the following ways: (1) an interview, (2) an interview, plus a written test. The admission team will notify those who have passed the qualification review of the specific assessment method, location and time.

3. Assessment by Center for Language Education and Cooperation of the Ministry of Education

Applicants who have passed the assessment of the admission teams of SYSU should then be assessed by the Center for Language Education and Cooperation. Fellowship winners will be listed in the announcement by the Center for Language Education and Cooperation.

4. Admission

(1) Pre-admission results will be published on our application website. The electronic Admission Letter and the Foreign Student Visa Application Form will be sent via email. Depending on the actual situation, paper copies of the Acceptance Letter and Visa Application Form for Foreign Students are expected to be sent out in July to the address the applicants have filled out in the online application system. Please make sure the address is valid.

(2) Admitted applicants should apply for an X1 visa at the Chinese embassy or consulate with the Admission Letter and the Foreign Student Visa Application Form. The X1 visa holders must go through residential formalities at the local public security departments within thirty days of entry into China. Otherwise, the admitted applicants will face expulsion. SYSU will not accept the registration of students without a valid student visa, and international students whose visas or residence permits have expired are not allowed to stay or conduct activities on campus.

VIII. Others

1. Admitted students must complete the registration procedures with a study visa according to the registration date required by SYSU. Those who have failed to register on time or pass the reexamination of admission qualification will be deprived of their scholarship.

2. Admitted students are required to participate in the annual scholarship review according to regulations. Those who have failed the annual review will be suspended or disqualified from the scholarship.

IX. Supervision

1. Admitted students must complete registration procedures according to the registration date and location required in the Admission Letter. They are not allowed to register in advance. Those who have failed to register within the time limit without approval will be regarded as having given up their admission qualifications. Scholarship winners in such cases will be disqualified.

2. Applicants should be responsible for the materials submitted. In accordance with relevant regulations of China and SYSU, applicants who have fabricated materials to obtain admissions will have their admission qualifications and student status cancelled by SYSU. After verification, relevant administrative departments will be informed of the facts of the applicants' fabrication.

3. In accordance with the relevant regulations and requirements of the Ministry of Education, SYSU will conduct a physical examination and review of admission eligibility for all admitted applicants after enrollment. Applicants who have not met the admission requirements or provided fabricated materials will be disqualified from admissions or student status, and scholarship recipients will be disqualified.

4. The SYSU Office of International Students' Affairs, Admissions Office of Education administration, performs the supervisory duties of the admissions. The Discipline Inspection and Supervision Department performs specific supervisory duties.

X. Supplementary Provisions

1. This guide is applicable to the application for the 2022 SYSU "China Studies Program (CSP)" Ph. D. Fellowships, and shall be implemented as of the date of publication.

2. SYSU Undergraduate Admission Leading Group authorizes the SYSU Office of International Students' Affairs, Admissions Office of Education administration, to interpret this guide.

3. If the policies of the Ministry of Education and relevant departments are adjusted, the new regulations shall be implemented accordingly.

Application Guide for the 2022 International Chinese Language Teachers Scholarship, Sun Yat-sen University

In accordance with the 2022 Application Guide for International Chinese Language Teachers Scholarship published by the Center for Language Education and Cooperation of the Ministry of Education and the actual conditions of SYSU, this guide is formulated as follows.

I. Introduction

For the purpose of training qualified International Chinese language teachers and facilitating Chinese language education in other countries, the Center for Language Education and Cooperation of the Ministry of Education will continue with the International Chinese Language Teachers Scholarship (it is shorted for CIS). Confucius Institutes, independently operated Confucius Classrooms, certain HSK test centers, Chinese language (education) departments of foreign universities, professional associations for Chinese language instruction of other countries, Chinese embassies (consulates) abroad (collectively “recommending institutions”) may recommend outstanding students and currently-employed Chinese language teachers to pursue Master’s Degree in Teaching Chinese to Speakers of Other Languages (it is shorted for MTC SOL) at SYSU. The program commences in September 2022 and provides scholarships for a maximum of two academic years.

II. Eligibility

1. Applicants should be non-Chinese citizens, with good physical and mental health, excellent academic performance, and aspiring to engage in Chinese Language education, teaching and other related work.

2. Applicants should be aged between 18 to 35 (as of September 1st, 2022). Applicants currently working as Chinese language teachers shall not be over 45 years old.

3. Applicants should hold a bachelor's degree.

4. Applicants should have an HSK (level V) certificate (with 210 points or above) and as well as an HSKK (Intermediate) certificate (with 60 points or above).

5. Priority will be given to applicants who provide a work contract with a prospective teaching institution upon completing their studies in China or a proof to the same effect.

III. Scholarship Coverage and Standards

The scholarship provides full coverage on tuition fee, accommodation fee, living allowance and comprehensive medical insurance expenses.

1. Tuition fee is under the overall planning and utilization for SYSU to provide teaching and management of scholarship students, organize cultural and social activities, as well as Chinese language proficiency tests. Tuition fee does not cover the textbook expenses and tourist tickets.

2. Accommodation fee is under the overall planning and utilization for SYSU to provide students with in-campus apartments (usually double rooms). Students may also live off campus upon application and getting permission from the university. Those who live off campus are entitled to accommodation allowance of 700 RMB per person/month paid on a month/quarterly basis from SYSU.

3. Living allowance is granted by SYSU on a monthly basis. For MTC SOL students, the monthly allowance is 3,000 RMB per person. Scholarship recipients are required to complete enrollment procedures for every semester within the stipulated period; otherwise, their scholarships may be cancelled. Students who are enrolled before the 15th (or on the 15th) of the month are entitled to the full allowance of that month while those enrolled after the 15th of that month are only entitled to half of the amount. During the study period, for any student who is absent from China due to personal reasons for more than 15 days (excluding winter and summer holidays), the allowance during absence will be suspended. For students who suspend study or drop out of school for personal reasons, or who are given disciplinary punishment by SYSU, allowances will be terminated on the date of such suspension, dropping out or the announcement of the decision of such punishment. The living allowance for the month of graduation will be granted half a month after the date of graduation or expiration day of the study confirmed by SYSU.

4. Comprehensive medical insurance is in accordance with relevant regulations for studying in China stipulated by the Ministry of Education of China. Insurance premium per person is 800 RMB per academic year.

I Program Introduction

1. Brief introduction

1) Degree Education Programs Sponsored by Ministry of Commerce PRC

Academic Education Programs sponsored by Ministry of Commerce of People's Republic of China started in 2008, which is designed to foster high-end, business officials and managerial personnel for developing countries, offering one-year and two-year master programs as well as three-year doctoral programs for the purpose of educating high-end, interdisciplinary and applied talents in the fields of politics, economy and trade, diplomacy, agriculture, science, education, culture and health, energy and transportation, and public administration etc., building intellectual capacity and facilitating the economic and social development of the developing countries.

These programs provide assistance to governmental officials, research fellows, and senior managerial personnel on their master and doctor education in China, which are fully conducted in English. Admission requirements include a bachelor's degree, relevant working experiences, and healthy physical conditions, which is essential for the intense study required for the degrees.

As a result of the positive effects brought by these programs in strengthening economic ties and friendship between China and other developing countries, these programs are highly valued by the local government.

The program provided by Sun Yat-sen University is based on Chinese governance, leading students to explore Chinese public management and policies from the five dimensions of society, economy, history and culture, law, and politics. We insist on inheriting the tradition of the Sun Yat-sen University, highlighting the characteristics of Chinese MPA degree, exploring the experience of "Chinese governance" and promoting the Chinese road in the overall process of program operation. In the teaching arrangements, we strive to guarantee teaching quality and scientifically organize courses. In addition, our university makes full use of regional advantages to arrange social practice for students: one course fieldwork for each professional course, and social practice outside the province before graduation.

2) Prospective Students

Our prospective students are government officials at or above the department level, the head of an academic institution at or above the dean level, or an administrative officer from other public sectors of a comparable level, who have demonstrated superior performance in their work and sufficient English proficiency to conduct their study. By the time of matriculation, each must have obtained an undergraduate bachelor's degree.

3) Program Objective

To foster high-end, interdisciplinary and applied talents in the fields of politics and public administration; to foster leaders with solid policy analysis skills and a global perspective who can handle complex national affairs.

4) Admission Plan

In year 2022 we have planned to enroll up to 20 students in our MPA-CGDC program, which will last for one academic year, and the teaching language is English.

5) Scholarship Coverage

The Chinese Ministry of Commerce will provide "Chinese Government Scholarships" to admitted students from developing countries. The scholarship covers both tuition and living expenses, and the school offers free accommodation during the one-year studying duration. The school will purchase medical insurance for students coming to China.

The scholarship also includes one-round-trip international airfare for all students (one time per year set at the end of an academic year). In terms of living expenses, it is 36000RMB/year for each master student. There is also a settlement allowance of 3000RMB/person, which is a one-time payment (settlement allowance is only paid when students arrive in China).

The Chinese Ministry of Commerce only offers scholarship during the normal study period, i.e. the scholarship covers ONLY one year's tuition, accommodation, and monthly stipend. Scholarship will NOT be offered if students need to extend study period.

2. University introduction

1) Sun Yat-sen University

Sun Yat-sen University (SYSU), founded by Dr. Sun Yat-sen and with an educational tradition spanning over 100 years, is a preeminent research, academic and cultural center and the premier location for talent development in South China. Under the direct supervision of the Ministry of Education of the People's Republic of China, and strongly supported by both the Ministry and Guangdong Province, SYSU has developed into a modern comprehensive university that enjoys a reputation as a top-tier university nationally and a renowned university internationally. With five campuses in the three cities of Guangzhou, Zhuhai and Shenzhen, and ten affiliated hospitals, the University is striving to become a world-class university and global center of learning.

Built on a solid multidisciplinary foundation of humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, medical sciences, and engineering, SYSU is propelled forward by the continuous pursuit of academic innovation.

Sun Yat-sen University has a strong academic faculty, with current full-time teachers 4255 people, of whom 1695 are with senior title, and 1834 with deputy senior title; there are 5,857 graduate tutors (including part-time tutors), of whom 2,687 are doctoral tutors.

Since 2011 Fall, SYSU has been offering a one-year full time Master of Public Administration-Chinese Governance for Developing Countries (MPA-CGDC for short) program in English.

2) School of Government

The School of Government (SOG) is one of the leading centers for teaching, studying and research in public administration, political science, social policy and land resources management in PRC. SOG consists a Department of Political Science and a Department of Public Administration as well as research centers and institutes related to these two fields, among which the Center for Public Administration Research is the sole research base in Public Administration designated by the Ministry of Education with distinguished professors in the related field in PRC. SOG has an internationalized team of young faculty members, including 23 professors, 22 associate professors, 2 lecturers and 10 researchers. More than half of the faculty hold overseas doctoral degrees and over 90% have international research experience.

3) Living Environment and Campus Facilities

Students of MPA-CGDC program study on South Campus in Guangzhou, Guangdong Province.

Clothes:

Guangdong is in the southernmost of mainland China, and most of it has a subtropical climate. The rainy season lasts from April to September. The annual average temperature is 21.8℃. The coldest month is January with an average temperature of 13.3℃, while the hottest month is July with an average temperature of 28.5℃.

2) Teaching Methods

This program applies multidisciplinary perspectives emphasizing both theoretical and methodological training to improve the understanding of the origin, development, and approaches of Chinese governance. Our highly interactive and collaborative courses combine lectures, seminars, case-studies and fieldwork.

During the academic classroom studies, each student will have a chance to conduct field work to study the practical operation of Chinese public agencies or non-government organizations. SOG will arrange fieldwork for all students and each student is required to write fieldwork report with topics based on the fieldwork experience as well as the final graduation thesis.

3) Semester Schedule

The MPA-CGDC program consists of 3 semesters of full-time academic work and 1 semester of thesis writing and defense. The actual class time for each semester is 9 weeks, a separate arrangement is made for the course fieldwork.

4) Thesis

Specific Requirements of the Thesis

In order to obtain an MPA degree, students must write a thesis and successfully defend their thesis orally.

The thesis is expected to combine theoretical perspectives and empirical analytic skills. A comparative analysis is preferred, but not required.

Specific Requirements of the Thesis Defense

The Master's Degree Thesis Defense Committee is composed of 3-5 people and requires the participation of experts from other organizations.

5) Degree Conferral

A degree on Master of Public Administration will be conferred upon a candidate in the master program after his/her successful completion of required Chinese language proficiency, credits and degree thesis.

Note: In accordance with the latest regulations given by Ministry of Education, upon graduation, students should meet the language level requirements of the document issued by the Ministry of Education on “the Quality Standard of Higher Education for International Students in China (Trial)”.
