The City of Dalian

Dalian, the second largest city in Liaoning province, is at the southern tip of Liaoning Peninsula. It is located at west of Yellow Sea and east of Bohai Sea. As a window for Northeast China opening to the world, Dalian is also the shipping, logistics and regional financial center of Northeast Asia.

As a coastal city in Northeast China, Dalian is neither bitterly cold in winter nor extremely hot in summer. It is, therefore, famous as "window of Northeast China". "Pearl of North China" and "City of Romance". In 2001, the United Nations Environment Program awarded Global 500 Roll of Honor for Environmental Achievement to Dalian, which is the first Chinese city to win this honor. Dalian is the host city of Annual Meeting of the New Championship, also known as Summer Davos.
