An Overview Of Jiangxi University of Finance and Economics

Jiangxi University of Finance and Economics (hereinafter referred to as JUFEE), founded in 1923, is located in Nanchang, the capital city of Jiangxi Province. It's a well-known university in China, ranking 7th among all the universities of finance and economics.

Jointly sponsored and governed by the Ministry of Finance, the Ministry of Education, and the Government of Jiangxi Province, JUFEE as a higher institution of finance and economics focuses on economics and management and simultaneously promotes the coordinated development of law, engineering, humanities, science and arts. Since its inception, JUFEE has been adhering to the motto of "Integrity, Diligence, Probity and Perseverance" and the philosophy of "Dedication, Harmony and Perfection", forming the characteristics of cultivating innovative and entrepreneurial talents who can represent the motto and philosophy. Additionally, it adheres to building a university featured with high quality, various specialties, outstanding talents, rule of law and good morality.

JUFEE pays high attention to internationalization. It has established a stable relationship with more than 160 partner universities in 40 countries and regions. In 2010, it officially became the first member in mainland China to join the International Exchange Organization (ISEP).

In 1997, JUFEE enrolled its first group of international students from the Vienna University of Economics in Austria. Since then, JUFEE has established a matured education system for international students, and opened English taught programs for undergraduate, graduate, and post-graduate studies. In 2018, JUFEE was granted an official certification for quality international students' education by the Ministry of Education of China. In 2019, JUFEE enrolled more than 500 international students from over 80 countries and regions such as the United States, Canada, Germany, Spain, the Netherlands, Russia, Pakistan, Morocco, Ukraine, Uzbekistan, Turkmenistan and other countries.

JUFEE has developed a recruiting system with expertise services and professional management teams for international student. It regularly organizes academic conferences, international cultural festivals, local cultural tours, summer camps and many more interesting activities for international students. In addition, there are various student associations also available for international students to enrich their campus life and promote mutual exchanges between Chinese and international students, such as international student volunteer teams, football teams and volleyball teams for international students to participate in.
